

Virtue/Vice Contrast Sheet

What Virtues Do: Virtues contained within a person's moral warehouse are the cumulative assets of his or her character. Behaviors controlled by vice words and activities reflect the deficit of character. Although moral deficits are the default within human nature, every habit of vice, can be replaced with a life-giving habit virtue.

Virtue

Attentiveness
Benevolent
Caring
Compassion
Contentment
Courage
Diligence
Discretion
Deference
Empathy
Forgiving
Generosity
Gentleness
Graciousness
Gratefulness
Honesty
Humility
Industrious
Fortitude
Fairness
Forgiveness
Kindness
Perseverance
Patience
Politeness
Praise
Prudence
Reliable
Respect
Responsible
Reverence
Self-Control
Sympathy
Thoughtfulness
Truthful
Valor
Wisdom

Vice

Neglectful
Selfish
Insensitive/Disregard
Cruel/Cruelty/Heartless
Envy/Jealousy
Fear
Half-hearted/Incomplete
Indifference/Disregard
Rude/Disrespect
Indifference/Coldness/Mercilessness
Vindictive
Selfishness/Stinginess/Greed
Abusive/Harshness
Crudeness/Impolite/
Disdain/Carelessness/Contemptuous
Falsehood/Deceit/Lying Pride/Haughtiness/Over-Confident
Lazy
Apathy/Lazy
Cheating /Dishonest/Unfair
Revengefulness
Meanness/Cruelty/Insensitive
Quitter/Lazy/Slothful
Rash/Impulsive/Reckless
Rude/Discourteous/Disrespectful
Sarcasm/Belittling
Squandering/Carelessness
Irresponsible/Undependable
Discourteous/Impolite/Inconsiderate
Untrustworthy/Irresponsible
Dishonor/Disrespect
Rash/Impulsive/Careless/Angry
Ridicule
Inconsiderate
Deceit, Lying
Cowardice
Foolishness